Stanley Armour Dunham

❖ Was CIA connected and NOT the real mother

- ➔ The CIA connections go back to Witchita Kansas when Stanely Dunham was caught by the OSS CIA stealing bomber plans for the Nazis: It appears while not charged in court he and his wife became (or already were) assets for the CIA inthe USA after having been caught.
- ➔ She did not appear to be pregnant when on a beach on Hawaii in her third trimester: She is also quoated as saying "I don't even have to get pregnant to have a baby" indicatign she may assume the role of mother to child not really hers. Mr Koret writes in the same article quoting a source “There are said to be photos of Ann Dunham on Waikiki Beach taken in or about July 1961, when she is supposed to have been in her third trimester, in a bikini, taken by a fellow female student. AD is clearly not pregnant. Media have not yet talked to fellow students, but it can’t be long. There are bound to be other photos of AD in existence taken during the alleged 2nd and 3rd trimesters. Obama campaign are terrified some one will press for her medical records, which have been accessed by CIA.”
- ➔ Micheal Hastings, Victoria Windsor, researching CIA history of Obama's and Birtherism. Victoria Windsor: Blogger, researcher into ancestry: .. .reported that she had “found evidence that the records of Madelyn Payne Dunham and Stanley Armour Dunham had been “tampered with.” Cause of death not yet revealed. Said to have died from a “sudden illness.”
- ➔ Marily Monroe was probably not the surrogate mother or bioligical mother but as Projet Harpster as asked to pose as the mother on August 4, 1962 when plans went wrong:This when she was found dead and ties to a sudden trip taken by Malcomn X at that time suggest something involving the FBI, Peter Lawford, Robert F. Kennedy, and others was unfolding in Los Angeles.

- → The Donegan family lived in Los Angeles and the real Birth Certificate of Ed Donegan shows tampering: I Edward Paul Donegan have asserted GLorian Donegan is the biological mother of Barrack Obama Jr. and my mother's or father' DNA contributions during that era already being studied at that time.
- → Eva Ban seen on the Santa Monica Beach with JFK is rumoured to have been the surrrogate mother and I assert Glorian Donegan was asked to be the egg donor: These stories have long exited but not been confirmed. In a very interesting way something like this was stylized into the Rocky Horror Picture Show about test tube babies, twins from a sperm bank, one to become a charming Banana Republic Strong Man, another Eddie with half a brain, actually with a family genetic disorder being studied that leads to Borderlin Personality Disorder.
- → Much of this did occure in Los Angeles County where the affairs playground of the Kennedy family was, and Santo Bono lived, Sunny Bono lived Jen Moore tells the story of Vatican, OSS to CIA, and Hidden Identities incluing the Donegan's (she filmed my home) and others of the OSS CIA families still alive today, our "elites" in the US Presidenty and elsewhere. Sonny Bono will be murdered.
- → Double Cross: The Explosive, Inside Story of the Mobster Who Controlled America This books goes into Peter Lawford being in on the plan for Indonesia that Marlilyn Monroe was about to leak so she was killed and he Project Harpstar diary dissapared. RFK was in the area as was Dr Greeson, but could not do so, the Mafia that RFK JKF and Dorothy Killgallen had been fighting got to Marilyn Monroe first, but RFK took the blame.

> Barack H. Obama: The Unauthorized Biography Paperback – November 1, 2008 by Webster G. Tarpley (Author), Jos. Azar (Illustrator),

Written by the author of the legendary 1992 expose of Bush the elder, this book works from a New Deal point of view. Obama is exposed as a foundation operative and agent of Wall Street finance capital, controlled by Zbigniew Brzezinski, George Soros, and Goldman Sachs. Obama's mother was an official of the Ford Foundation, the World Bank, and US AID. By all indications, Obama was identified for future political use by Brzezinski at Columbia in 1981-1983, during Obama's secret lost years. Obama has worked for the Gamaliel Foundation, the Joyce Foundation, the Woods Fund, and the Annenberg Foundation as a community organizer - a poverty pimp, a cynical opportunist who uses suffering people as a political commodity. The foundation strategy is divide and conquer, pitting blacks against whites against Hispanics against Asians, to prevent any challenge to Wall Street. Racist provocateurs like Wright and Pfleger, along with Weatherman terrorist bombers Ayers and Dohrn, Obama's best friends, are cast in this mold. Rezko, Auchi, and Al-Sammarae represent the cesspool of Chicago graft and corruption in which Obama cavorts. Schooled in Nietzsche and Fanon, Obama qualifies as a postmodern fascist. An Obama administration would strive for brutal economic sacrifice and austerity to finance Wall Street bailouts, and for imperialist confrontation with Russia and China.

The phalanx of right-wing radio commentators who call themselves conservatives is attempting to portray Obama as an ultraliberal, "the most liberal senator in the Democratic Party," according to a study produced by National Journal. This is a very weak, tired, unconvincing way to deal with Obama, and it is ultimately a loser. This is not very scary, and to do justice to the horrifying reality of the Obama threat, it ought to be very scary indeed. To say that Obama is a liberal, as Rush Limbaugh incessantly does, is to say that he is just more of the same, from the same tired old playbook of Walter Mondale and Michael Dukakis. [or the Liberal Lion Ted Kennedy or RFK]. If Obama is just the latest liberal and there is nothing new under the sun, then ho-hum. This approach fatally underestimates how radically different and how extremely dangerous Obama really is.

New York Times Bestseller! "Sam Giancana tells all . . . Controversial . . . ties seven United States presidents to the mob."—Larry King, CNN

One of the most feared Chicago mobsters Sam Giancana clawed his way to the top of the Mafia hierarchy by starting as a hit man for Al Capone. He was known as one of the best vehicle escape artists, a tenacious business man, and a ruthless killer. He partied with major stars such as Frank Sinatra and Marilyn Monroe and did business with agents ranging from the CIA to the Vatican to the shah of Iran.

When politician Joe Kennedy gave Giancana the chance to use mob muscle to get his son John elected, Giancana jumped at the task. But the Kennedy brothers double-crossed him, waging full-out war on organized crime throughout the United States. And Giancana went after them.

Written with suspense and conviction, we learn about how the CIA asked Giancana to assassinate Fidel Castro

The book includes Giancana's testimony about the truth of his involvement in the deaths of Monroe and others, among others. Chuck Giancana, Sam's brother, contributes a unique perspective of the mob's relationship with the Bay of Pigs and many other pivotal events of the 60's and beyond. Double Cross is an eye-opening account of the interworking of the government and the mob and how this relationship has impacted American history.

"Mobster chief Sam Giancana was at the heart of one of America's most notorious criminal conspiracies and this book gives us fresh information on that. His web of crimes and associations involve some of the most glamorous figures of his age, including the Kennedy family, Frank Sinatra and Marilyn Monroe. Written with the crisp cadence of a thriller, it is a fascinating expose of dark deals and ,adds more layers to that most famous mystery—who really killed President John Kennedy?"—Tim Newark from his Foreword

By June of 1962, Marilyn's film career was losing momentum; she'd become unreliable and deeply troubled. Early that summer, Mooney told Chuck he'd had a former FBI agent and a detective working on Marilyn's surveillance and in so doing had received a wealth of information about the starlet's habits, her emotional state, and stormy love life. From what he'd learned, Mooney believed Marilyn's use to Chicago and the CIA was dwindling.

From what Chuck could learn from his brother, in the late fifties and early sixties, Marilyn's desire to achieve stardom, coupled with her childlike desire to please, was exploited by the Outfit and the CIA, as well: Her sexual charms were employed by the CIA to frame world leaders-among them, President Sukarno of Indonesia. Mooney insisted that using Monroe as bait, the CIA had successfully compromised leaders from Asia to the Middle East. And Marilyn, perhaps more because she enjoyed the attentions of the world's most powerful men than for reasons of patriotism, had been a willing participant in the intrigue. [This was Project Harpstar run by Nelson Rockefeller then Governer of New York]

Later, Chuck would surmise that Marilyn Monroe's knowledge of CIA-Outfit collaborative efforts coupled with her increasingly severe emotional instability had become a dangerous combination. And that by July, thanks to a failing relationship with Bobby Kennedy, she had become not only expendable but-when Mooney received reports of her threats to Bobby Kennedy to "blow the lid off the whole damn thing"-a frightening liability, as well." [Ed Donegan asserts the whole damn thing was planning Obama Jr. for Indonesia.]

According to guys in the Outfit, it was at this time that the CIA, fearful of exposure by the vengeful, drug-addicted Monroe, requested that Mooney have her eliminated. And Mooney, smelling blood, seized on the CIA contract as a way to achieve another objective, as well. By murdering Monroe, it might be possible to depose the rulers of Camelot. [Making sure Dr. Greenson was blamed for a prescription OR RFK was blamed for the murder of his alleged mistress when in fact Monroe JFK and RFK were reigning back the CIA activities and were allies.]

> - Double Cross: The Explosive Inside Story of the Mobster Who Controlled America

Book by C. Giancana and Sam Giancana [Ed Donegan asserts this was CIA Project HARPSTAR by Rockefeller's Papua New Guinea and Indonesia.

In 1956, when President Sukarno of Indonesia came to visit the United States, Scott McLeod of the State Department contacted Maheu and asked him to vet hookers for Sukarno from a security standpoint under the CIA's Project Harpstar. Maheu said this was done to "please" Sukarno, but no doubt this was also an attempt to compromise him with photographs and other material for potential blackmail. The problem was, Sukarno's appetite for women was part of his appeal to a segment of the public in Indonesia. A little over a year later, according to Maheu, he got a call from Sheffeld Edwards at CIA, the security offcer who oversaw the Bluebird and ARTICHOKE CIA mind control programs. Edwards wanted Maheu to perform another operation relative to Sukarnoæ Evidently, the Soviets supplied Sukarno with prostitutes too, but one of them was a KGB agent. Edwards was initially asked to contact Maheu by the CIA's Far East Division.

July 11, 2012 Hastings co-researcher Victoria Windsor dies of a sudden illness researching Obama family ancestry

The Tea Party Tribune researches the Mombassa Kenya Birther certificate and Madelyn Paine Dunham records.

Victoria Windsor: Blogger, researcher [along with Micheal Hastings] into ancestry: .. .reported that she had “found evidence that the records of Madelyn Payne Dunham and Stanley Armour Dunham had been “tampered with.” Cause of death not yet revealed. Said to have died from a “sudden illness”

Victoria was active on blogs and newspapers in the constitutional arena. She was an excellent researcher, particularly in the area of ancestry. One of the last emails The Post & Email received from her stated that she had found evidence that the records of Madelyn Payne Dunham and Stanley Armour Dunham had been “tampered with.”

Victoria had also performed extensive research on the background of then-presidential candidate Rick Santorum in an attempt to determine if he met the definition of “natural born Citizen” found in Article II, Section 1, clause 5 of the U.S. Constitution.

It was the same day the Brietbart cornoer's report was made available to the public.

Michael Arthur “Mort” Cormier Birth 7 Jun 1950 Rumford, Oxford County, Maine, USA Death April 21, 2012 (aged 61) Burbank, Los Angeles County, California, USA

DISCREPANCIES AND POLITICAL CONNECTIONS

Michael died from arsenic poisoning, and the Los Angeles County Coroner's Offce published the PRELIMINARY AUTOPSY REPORT on Andrew Breitbart the same day - not a mere coincidence any more when you add the evidence of the toe tag.

Did Michael find something during the private autopsy of Breitbart that contradicted the Los Angeles Coroner's Offce and their toxicology results? Family and friends have stated that Michael always carried a small blue journal that included poetry, and notes from cases. The notebook has not been recovered and was not included in the personal belongings given to Michaelis wife.

According to the retired F.B.I. agent I communicated with, the Los Angeles Coroner's Offce answers to the Mayor of Los Angeles. At the time of Andrew Breitbart's and Michael Cormier's death, Antonio Villaraigosa served as the Mayor for Los Angeles (2005-2013). He was a member of President Obama's 2008 Economic Advisory Board and the Chairman of the 2012 Democratic National Convention. Antonio Villaraigosa has beaten or paid fines related to ethics violations -- he is currently a Democratic candidate for the Governor of California.

If Michael's stomach contents were preserved, the exact origin of the arsenic could've been traced. Dan Anderson told Ed in a phone conversation that he couldn't find a lab to perform the tests needed on the blood.

Michael ingested enough arsenic in the last 24/48 hours of his life that it crystallized in his stomach. The stomach contents were never sent to a private lab nor tested within the Los Angeles Coroner's Offce. Why? And why did the blood tests take over two years to perform?

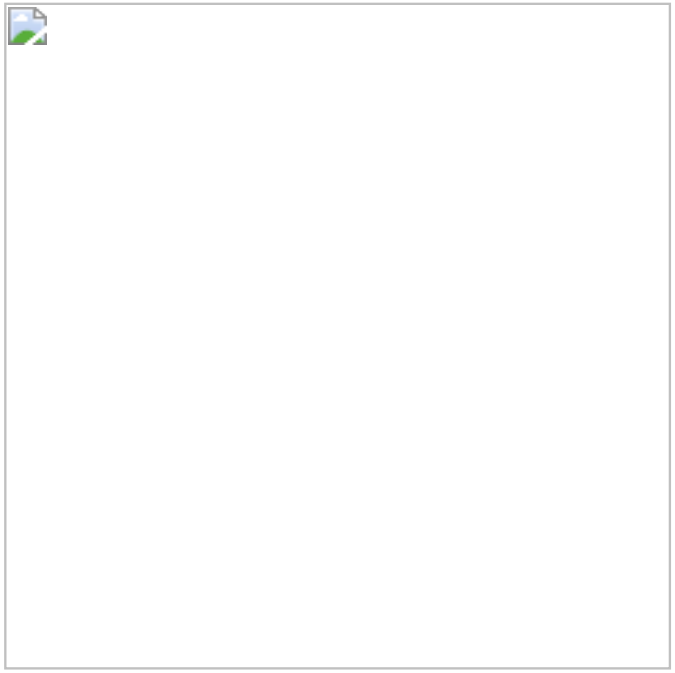
According to Joseph Smith, a former CIA officer in Asia, quoted from the book ‘Goddess: The Secret Lives of Marilyn Monroe’, written by Anthony Summer, there was a further meeting between Sukarno and Monroe after that night. https://thoryshinwa.wordpress.com/2014/07/10/ir-soekarno-and-marilyn-monroe-ever-have-proximity-is-it-true/



The first photo [Showing only Sukarno and Monroe] is based on a visit by Sukarno to the US around 1961 when the Kennedy administration feted him in a bid to turn around his pro-communist and anti-US tendencies. It didn’t work. He went on to the Soviet Union which turned on an even more lavish reception and awarded him the Lenin Peace Prize.

The second photo (with Jackie) is based on a cocktail party hosted in Beverly Hills for Sukarno in late May 1956. Gregory Peck and Ronald Reagan were also thought to have been there but Agan has not bothered making photos of Sukarno with these stars. He has played with the fact that Sukarno was a big fan of US movies (he had a cinema installed in his presidential palace to watch them) and had made it known he wanted to meet Marilyn Monroe while he was in the US.

Monroe (according to Sam Giancana) was killed by an anal dalivery of Nembutal (a barbituate) along with another drug the CIA felt hindered the metabolism of Nembutal. Chapter 17 of the Tell All book Double Cross by the Giancana family in their own patriotic duty to set the record straight as to history (the family NOT on their deathbed fearing or hoping for any consequences to the truth) contains the pictures of the major crime figures and two key outcomes of the Outfit attack on the USA. The scene of the ambulance at Norma Jean's home and the Kennedy assasination photo of Kennedy in the car with his entorouge. These were the actions of the CIA.

In a corroborating and similar tell all by Giancana cohort Chauncey Marvin Holt book Self Portrait of a Scoundrel the appendix Documents and Photos holds many of the images of the figures and documents of history he was revealing. But again in Double Cross by the Giancana family their gifts to historians and justice as told by images is concentrated in the book's Chapter 17 where the US Congress and the Kennedy family go toe-to-toe with the Mafia.

Here is a list of the figures and events of history the Giancana (and Chauncey Marvin Holt and Meyers Lanksy) family are connected to by their own story telling in the order the string of photos and captions to the photos appear in.

Anthony Joseph Accardo (/əˈkɑːrdoʊ/; born Antonino Leonardo Accardo, Italian: [antoˈniːno leoˈnardo akˈkardo]; April 28, 1906 - May 22, 1992), also known as "Joe Batters" and "Big Tuna",[1] was an American longtime mobster. In a criminal career that spanned eight decades, he rose from small-time hoodlum to the position of day-to-day boss of the Chicago Outfit in 1947, to ultimately becoming the power behind the throne in the Outfit by 1972. Accardo moved the Outfit into new operations and territories, significantly increasing its power and wealth during his tenure as boss. - Wikipedia

JIMMY HOFFA. CAP/ WIDE WORLD)

James Riddle Hoffa (born February 14, 1913 - disappeared July 30, 1975, declared dead July 30, 1982) was an American labor union leader who served as the president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters (IBT) from 1957 until 1971. He is notorious for his alleged ties to organized crime and for his disappearance under mysterious circumstances in 1975.

From an early age, Hoffa was a union activist: he became an important regional figure with the IBT by his mid-20s. By 1952, he was the national vice-president of the IBT and between 1957 and 1971 he was its general president. Hoffa secured the first national agreement for teamsters' rates in 1964 with the National Master Freight Agreement. He played a major role in the growth and the development of the union, which eventually became the largest by membership in the United States, with over 2.3 million members at its peak, during his terms as its leader.

Hoffa became involved with organized crime from the early years of his Teamsters work, a connection that continued until his disappearance. He was convicted of jury tampering, attempted bribery, conspiracy, along with mail and wire fraud in 1964 in two separate trials. He was imprisoned in 1967 and sentenced to 13 years.

In mid-1971, he resigned as president of the union as part of a commutation agreement with U.S. president Richard Nixon and was released later that year, but he was barred from union activities until 1980. Hoping to regain support and to return to IBT leadership, he unsuccessfully tried to overturn the order.

Hoffa disappeared on July 30, 1975. He is generally thought to have been murdered by the Mafia, and was declared legally dead in 1982. Hoffa's legacy and the circumstances of his disappearance continue to stir debate.

CARLOS MARCELLO. CAP/ WIDE WORLD)

Carlos Joseph Marcello[1] (Sicilian Italian);[Mor-sel-lo] born Calogero Minacore [kaˈlɔːdʒero minaˈkɔːre]; February 6, 1910 - March 3, 1993) was an Italian-American crime boss of the New Orleans crime family from 1947 to 1983. Aside from his role in the American Mafia, he is also notorious for the reason that G. Robert Blakey and others have alleged that Carlos Marcello, Santo Trafficante Jr., and Sam Giancana conspired in the 1963 assassination of U.S. President John F. Kennedy in retaliation for federal investigations and prosecutions that threatened both the power and the multibillion-dollar profits of organized crime. - Wikipedia

JOHNNY ROSELLI AP/WORLD WIDE

John "Handsome Johnny" Roselli (born Filippo Sacco; July 4, 1905 - August 7, 1976), sometimes spelled Rosselli, was a mobster for the Chicago Outfit who helped that organization exert influence over Hollywood and the Las Vegas Strip. Roselli was recruited by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) in a plot to assassinate Cuban leader Fidel Castro.

SANTO TRAFICANTE, JR.

Santo Trafficante Jr. (November 15, 1914 - March 17, 1987) was among the most powerful Mafia bosses in the United States. He headed the Trafficante crime family from 1954 to 1987 and controlled organized criminal operations in Florida and Cuba, which had previously been consolidated from several rival gangs by his father, Santo Trafficante Sr.

Trafficante maintained links to the Bonanno crime family in New York City, but was more closely allied with Sam Giancana in Chicago. Consequently, while generally recognized as the most powerful organized crime figure in Florida throughout much of the 20th century, Trafficante was not believed to have total control over Miami, Miami Beach, Ft. Lauderdale, or Palm Beach. The east coast of Florida was a loosely knit conglomerate of New York family interests with links to Meyer Lansky, Bugsy Siegel, Angelo Bruno, Carlos Marcello, and Frank Ragano.

Trafficante admitted his anti-Castro activities to the United States House Select Committee on Assassinations in 1978, and vehemently denied allegations that he had knowledge of a plot to assassinate President John F. Kennedy. Federal investigators brought racketeering and conspiracy charges against him in the summer of 1986.

CHUCK NICOLETTI. CAP/ WIDE WORLD)

Charles Nicoletti (/ˌnɪkəˈlɛti/; December 3, 1916 - March 29, 1977), also known as "Chuckie the Typewriter", was an American mobster of the Chicago Outfit, who served as hitman under boss Sam Giancana before and after Giancana's rise and fall. Nicoletti was murdered on March 29, 1977.

RICHARD CAIN. CAP/ WIDE WORLD)

Richard Cain (October 4, 1931 - December 20, 1973), also known as Richard Scalzitti, was a notoriously corrupt Chicago police officer and a close associate of Mafia boss Sam Giancana.

Richard Cain was born to John and Lydia (née Scully) Cain - who were Irish-American and Italian-American, respectively - in Chicago, Illinois. Cain was raised in Chicago and Michigan after his parents divorced. He joined the U.S. Army at the age of 17 and was stationed in the United States Virgin Islands from 1947 to 1950. While there, he became fluent in Spanish. Before returning to Chicago in 1951, Cain worked as an investigator at the Burns Detective Agency in Dallas, Texas.

Despite his grandfather having been a prominent sewer contractor who was killed by the Chicago Outfit in Little Italy, in 1928,[2] Cain would later become a close associate of Sam Giancana. While Cain worked as an officer in the Chicago Police Department (CPD) during the mid-1950s, he served as a bagman between corrupt police officials and the Outfit.

Double deal and disgrace. Taking a leave of absence from the CPD in 1960, Cain was assigned as an investigator for Assistant U.S. Attorney Richard Ogilvie in his investigation of Outfit boss Anthony Accardo.

Cain alluded to having been deported from Mexico in 1961 after helping train Cuban-Americans for the Bay of Pigs invasion. After his death, "Washington sources" confirmed "off-the-record" that these claims were true.[3] He also claimed to have worked with the U.S. State Department "tracing the flow of American money into Communist hands." - Wikipedia

Nicoletti said that three other planes also landed in California that week-in San Francisco-carrying four other men. Mooney had selected a trusted assassin, Needles Gianola, to coordinate the job. Needles, in turn, brought his sidekick, Mugsy Tortorella, on board and two other professional killers-one from Kansas City and one from Detroit. The four men had gone to California, under Mooney's orders, to murder Marilyn Monroe.

Eavesdropping nearby, where the electronic surveillance equipment had been set up by Bernie Spindel, the killers patiently waited for the attorney general to arrive. Bobby Kennedy finally did appear at Marilyn's home, late on Saturday, accompanied by another man. Listening in on the conversation, Mooney's men ascertained that Marilyn was more than a little angry at Bobby. She became agitated -hysterical, in fact-and in response, they heard Kennedy instruct the man with him, evidently a doctor, to give her a shot to "calm her down." Shortly thereafter, the attorney general and the doctor left.

The killers waited for the cover of darkness and, sometime before midnight, entered Marilyn's home. She struggled at first, it was said, but already drugged by the injected sedative, thanks to Bobby's doctor friend, their rubber-gloved hands easily forced her nude body to the bed.

Calmly, and with all the efficiency of a team of surgeons, they taped her mouth shut and proceeded to insert a specially "doctored" Nembutal suppository into her anus.

Then they waited.

The suppository, which Nicoletti said had been prepared by the same Chicago chemist who concocted the numerous chemical potions for the Castro hit[.]

He joined the 42 Gang as a teenager, developing a reputation in organized crime, which gained him the notice of the leaders of the Chicago Outfit, which he joined during the late 1930s. From the 1940s through the 1950s, he controlled illegal gambling, illegal liquor distribution, and political rackets in Louisiana. In the early 1940s, Giancana was involved in a takeover of Chicago's black American lottery payout system for the Outfit. In 1957, he became the boss of the Chicago Outfit.

According to some sources, Giancana and the Mafia were involved in John F. Kennedy's victory in the 1960 presidential election. During the 1960s, he was recruited by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) in a plot to assassinate Cuban leader Fidel Castro. Conspiracy theorists consider Giancana, along with Mafia leaders Santo Trafficante Jr. and Carlos Marcello, to be associated with the assassination of John F. Kennedy. In 1965, Giancana was convicted of contempt of court, serving one year in prison. After his release from prison, Giancana fled to Cuernavaca, Mexico. In 1974, he was deported to the United States, returning to Chicago. Giancana was murdered on June 19, 1975, in Oak Park, Illinois, shortly before he was scheduled to appear before the Church Committee. - Wikipedia

CHUCK AND ANNE MARIE GIANCANA TODAY.

NOT PICTURED AS DECEASED IN JOSEPH KENNEDY SR.

A the Kennedy brothers JFK and RFK fight the Mafia Trafficante put a hit out on Joseph Kennedy Sr. who seems to have helped the USAID Indonesia plan though that plan is not mentioned in detail in the book. Marilyn Monroe is mentioned as a CIA operative to frame Sukarno with KOMPROMAT in an affair. Feeling double crossed the hit goes out on Joseph Kennedy Sr. but JK Sr. contacts Giancana and the hit is called off. Giancan does expect to "own" the Kennedy family after that though.

Days before Holt died Voice Over the off screen TV interviewer of Holt gave this interview

VO: Chauncey Holt continued his association with the CIA during the 1960's and 1970's. He played a role in covert operations in Brazil, Laos and Chile. At the same time Holt maintained his close friendship and business interests with mafia boss Peter Licavoli until the mobster's death in 1984. Holt also continued to be deeply involved through the years with attorney Frank Belcher with whom he maintained a joint banking account at the Bank of America in Burbank, CA. Many of Holt's CIA contract agent "projects" were funded and funneled through this special account.

In 1975 the CIA began to purge rogue contract agents, aka "cowboys" from its employ. Some were forced into retirement, while others like Chauncey Holt ended up in prison. On January 2, 1976, Holt had written a letter to his old CIA ally William King Harvey apprising him of his recent indictment by a federal grand jury. Harvey responded by saying he could only offer "token assistance." Harvey did offer to send Chauncey some CIA documents that were about to be declassified. These records proved that Holt worked for the Clandestine Operations of the Central Intelligence Agency.

As recounted elsewhere, Operation Mongoose was revived and a number of contract agents, as well as the Cubans and gangsters like Giancana, Licavoli, Roselli, Traficante and Rothman, who answered to Lansky, were involved in these attempts on Castro, many of which were not only ludicrous but bordered on lunacy.

On December 14, 1961, I [Chauncey Holt one of the trainyard hobos working for William King Harvey known as Mr H) attended a meeting at Bermuda Dunes Airport, a proprietary interest of the CIA, operated by Ray Ryan and an old time pilot by the name of Ernie Dunlevie. This was the only meeting I attended where most of the principals involved in the plot to assassinate Fidel Castro were present. Those present included William King Harvey, Peter Licavoli, Sam Giancana, Johnny Roselli, Ray Ryan and Frank Hayden. Ernie Dunlevie was not present. I acted as the secretary and I still have the handwritten notes of that meeting.

It was decided that the ZR/RIFLE program would be applied to Cuba. There would be maximum security and non-attributability in regard to this project. The term "Kubark" and "Kutube/D Search" were assigned to the plan. We were advised not to us "AM" but rather "Mongoose" when referring to this project. Operations would be implemented through word of mouth, person to person, singleton ops and nothing on paper. We were assured that phony 201 files would be inserted in the central registry and backdated. I was assigned Q J/ lose and was instructed to prepare the necessary forged documents. All this would be implemented through Special Group (augmented), coded Task 33.

9 Months after the meeting with William King Harvey and Sam Giacana and John Roselli these same crowd will kill Marilyn Monroe. Monroe was going to reveal the ongoing CIA overthrows operation and thus she was silenced. A member of the Greek Community in Chicago learned of the operation from their own mouths and also was silenced. Johnny Roselli is a very central figured named by others and in declassified CIA and FBI documents in the national archives.

Roselli agree to introduce Maheu to "Sam Gold." At this point the Report refers to a memorandum prepared by Edwards, dated 14 May 1962, re money not paid to ... https://www.archives.gov/files/research/jfk/releases/180-10141-10406.pdf

This CIA task force was to assassinate Castro (and I believe other operations) and did assassinate "leakers" RFK, JFK, and Marilyn Monroe and others.

MAFIA MURDER OF MARILYN MONROE

Eunice Murray worked for Dr. Greenson. For his psychiatric patients she was a day and night care aid, driving for, watching over, and being aware of the status of his patients and also helped with housekeeping,, etc, She asserted while in Marilyn Monroe's home a Greenson's request a group of criminals subdued Monroe and moved her to the bathroom where Monroe was give a lethal enema. She is the only in-home witness to the events of that night.

Jeanne Laverne Carmen (August 4, 1930 - December 20, 2007) was an American model, actress and trick-shot golfer. In 1998, Carmen was the subject of a TV episode titled "Jeanne Carmen: Queen of the B-Movies" on the series E! True Hollywood Story. The show stated that Carmen maintained a "dangerously close friendship with Marilyn Monroe and The Kennedys" and that after the death of Monroe, Carmen was told to leave town by Johnny Rosselli who was working for Chicago Mob Boss Sam Giancana. Believing her life was in danger, she fled to Scottsdale, Arizona, where she lived incognito for more than a decade. Carmen abandoned her platinum-blonde locks, had three children, and lived a quiet life, never mentioning her prior life in Hollywood.

[2 mins 14 s] The second personal anecdote that I have is is uh related to my Greek family extended Greek family in Chicago.

Story Goes that a 18-year-old girl named Eugenia Pappas was an attractive Greek girl who was a hair stylist in distant relative in the Greek family and she befriended a man named Frank Schweihs. Frank Schweihs it turns out was in the mafia but Eugenia dated him and relates to the story of travelingh from puke airport uh a group of uh Hitmen that flew to Los Angeles on the morning uh of uh August the 4th (1962) the day that Marilyn Monroe died.

The hit men went to a party and then they left the party and then they came back after a while and then they next day they flew back to uh Chicago.

Eugenia relates later after she broke up with Frank Schweihs that that this was a hit on Marilyn Monroe on orders from Sam Giancana. Now subsequently Eugenia Pappas was killed uh and was found in the Chicago River. Several months later and many of the people that had been involved with the Marilyn Monroe murder were sworn to see secrecy including a jean Carman uh who was one of Marilyn's girlfriends she later wrote a book called uh my Wild Wild Life and Jean Carman went into hiding for uh 16 years uh until Sam Giancana died was killed and then came out of hiding and tells her story of the mafia involvement in the murder of Marilyn Monroe.

5 mins 10 seconds. Sam and Chuck Giancana involving the Marilyn Monroe murder. was bugged as well one other piece of information that 5:12 I think is interesting is in a book uh by Sam and Chuck Giancana uh 5:18 involving the Maryland Monroe murder they mentioned that a suppository was concocted by University chemist that had 5:25 Nembutal (Nembutal is a prescription sedative that has medical value but is dangerous when misused. Chloral hydrate is a geminal diol with the formula Cl 3C−CH(OH) 2. It was first used as a sedative and hypnotic in Germany in the 1870s.) and chlorohydrate uh and that this suppository was a part of the CIA Mafia 5:31 plan to kill Fidel Castro uh and that the mafia had this supposed to available 5:38 and had used it on some of their own uh victims uh and verified that indeed it did work in fact they found that with 5:45 Marilyn Monroe she had 15 times the Fatal level of chlorohydrate and Nembutal 5:52 uh in her bloodstream that time she died and this had in my opinion been most likely from a suppository you couldn't 5:59 get that many pills down somebody's stomach uh and uh get that high of a drug 6:06 level also Jean Carmen relates that Marilyn had called her uh the night that 6:12 she died and asked for sleeping pills because she was out of sleeping pills Jee Carman declined and said I don't 6:19 have any either but it's interesting that here Maryland was out of sleeping pills and yet she's been accused of 6:25 taking an overdose of sleeping pills uh less than an hour after she had called Jee Carman so it's 6:32 unlikely that Marilyn died from ingestion of Nembutal chlorohydrate pills.

Eunice Murray (housekeeper staying with Monroe that night) "The Maid Did It, In The Bedroom, With An Enema " https://marilynadayinthelife.com/eunice-murray/

14:13 greenson has Unice Murray the housekeeper stay at the house that night she doesn't normally stay at the house 14:19 but Unice Murray uh stays at the house and she's going to stay there all night this is kind of a little mixup in the 14:26 original plan the original plan would be that Marilyn would be discovered dead that following morning the police would 14:31 be called and there'd be an investigation and Robert Kennedy's name would get dragged into it and so on and 14:37 so forth but with Unice Murray there as Jean Carman relates the story The Hitman 14:43 also abused Unice Murray that night in other words Marilyn wasn't the only 14:48 victim that night that Unice Murray was intimidate she was told you will tell the 14:55 police that Bobby Kennedy had been here earlier and you will not talk about our 15:00 presence here tonight if you do we'll come back and finish you off and finish 15:06 off your family that's my opinion that there are probably death threats against Unice Murray if she didn't call the 15:11 police so now Unice Murray had a dilemma after the Hitman left uh should she go 15:17 ahead and call the police and wait until that next morning or should she call Peter Lawford and and let him know what just transpired.

DOUBLE CROSS: THE EXPLOSIVE INSIDE STORY OF THE MOBSTER WHO CONTROLLED AMERICA

Although most Americans have known little up until now about Sam Giancana's impact on the nation, it's precisely this lack of knowledge that has made writing Double Cross so necessary. Tired of the blatant misinformation and inaccuracies that have continued to be reported on topics ranging from the St. Valentine's Day Massacre to the death of Marilyn Monroe and the assassination of John F. Kennedy, we decided it was time, once and for all, to tell the story of these events as Sam Giancana related it. The resulting revelations contained in Double Cross, although shocking, speak for themselves.

Thus, we now present what was confided to Chuck Giancana by his brother Sam Giancana as the truth of the times. It should be added that we do so with much sadness and no small measure of fear. This is a sordid and diffcult legacy-and one we did not choose. It's therefore our desire that, after completing the book, the reader will not find those bearing the Giancana name guilty, by association, with a man who so destructively changed the course of history.

From what Chuck could learn from his brother, in the late fifties and early sixties, Marilyn's desire to achieve stardom, coupled with her childlike desire to please, was exploited by the Outfit and the CIA, as well: Her sexual charms were employed by the CIA to frame world leaders-among them President Sukarno of Indonesia. Mooney insisted that using Monroe as bait, the CIA had successfully compromised leaders from Asia to the Middle East.

And Marilyn, perhaps more because she enjoyed the attentions of the world's most powerful men than for reasons of patriotism, had been a willing participant in the intrigue.

By June of 1962, Marilyn's film career was losing momentum; she'd become unreliable and deeply troubled. Early that summer, Mooney told Chuck he'd had a former FBI agent and a detective working on Marilyn's surveillance and in so doing had received a wealth of information about the starlet's habits, her emotional state, and stormy love life.

From what he'd learned, Mooney believed Marilyn's use to Chicago and the CIA was dwindling.

Later, Chuck would surmise that Marilyn Monroe's knowledge of CIA-Outfit collaborative efforts coupled with her increasingly severe emotional instability had become a dangerous combination. And that by July, thanks to a failing relationship with Bobby Kennedy, she had become not only expendable but -when Mooney received reports of her threats to Bobby Kennedy to "blow the lid off the whole damn thing"-a frightening liability, as well.

According to guys in the Outfit, it was at this time that the CIA, fearful of exposure by the vengeful, drug-addicted Monroe, requested that Mooney have her eliminated. And Mooney, smelling blood, seized on the CIA contract as a way to achieve another objective, as well. By murdering Monroe, it might be possible to depose the rulers of Camelot.

One week before her death, a distraught Marilyn Monroe flew in to Lake Tahoe's Cal-Neva Lodge. Unbeknownst to her, Mooney had orchestrated the invitation. Among the guests that weekend was a man Mooney jokingly referred to as "Peter the Rabbit" Lawford.

The killers waited for the cover of darkness and, sometime before midnight, entered Marilyn's home. She struggled at first, it was said, but already drugged by the injected sedative, thanks to Bobby's doctor friend, their rubber-gloved hands easily forced her nude body to the bed. Calmly, and with all the efficiency of a team of surgeons, they taped her mouth shut and proceeded to insert a specially "doctored" Nembutal suppository into her anus. Then they waited.

- DOUBLE CROSS: THE EXPLOSIVE INSIDE STORY OF THE MOBSTER WHO CONTROLLED AMERICA Sam and Chuck Giancana

My (Edward Paul Donegan's) assertion is that as CIA Subversion and Overthrow the George H.W. Bush team (that the Donegan family freind Prouty suspects according to the CIA citing operation Zapata and the Barbara boat at Bay of Pigs) and Cheney were involved in grooming Obama as an adopeted orphan. On the first REAL birthday of November 19 (on the birth certificate but born November 18) Cheney is approaced for the second or first time under some kind of ruse. He and his daughter and father part of USAID the CIA was using from generation to generation according to now declassified CIA files Wayne Madsen has.

The Curious Matters of Obama Family Values

If patriotism is the Hallmark of the CIA the Obama family has been walking those hallways for generations. Alleged grandmother Madelyn was a CIA operative in Hawaii, the white mother of Obama Jr. as entered into the Hawaii Birth Certificate seems improbable. Compound that with questions about the truthful background as to Michelle Obama although knee-jerk anger is the trained reaction to such well founded questions researchers look into.

Said to be biological Grandparents

The questions in these questions go to birth certificate information. When was Barrack Obama Jr. born, where was he born, and who were his parents? Was this a disguised out-of-wedlock birth, in the USA and a live birth but a surrogate birth the CIA was testing with CIA families connected to his birth? If one or two birth certicates are questionable and the SSN is questionable is there an undiscovred real one?? In Los Angeles County November 19, 1961?

Stanley Armour Dunham (Boeing, CIA) and Madelyn Payne Dunham (Bank of Hawaii CIA)

CIA Cover Story Barack Obama Grandparents Stanley Armour Dunham (March 23, 1918 - February 8, 1992) was the maternal grandfather of the 44th U.S. President Barack Obama. He and his wife Madelyn Payne Dunham raised Obama from the age of 10 in Honolulu, Hawaii.

> In 1959 Richard Nixon [Libary Meetings with Rockefeller Standard Oil about Mid East North Africa MENA) was approaching oilmen like George Walker Bush and Jack Crichton to help fund Operation 40. We also have the claim of Frank Sturgis that “this assassination group (Operation 40) would upon orders, naturally, assassinate either members of the military or the political parties of the foreign country that you were going to infiltrate, and if necessary some of your own members who were suspected of being foreign agents.” *

Ponca City was a thriving community in the late 1940's when Madelyn Dunham arrived in Ponca City with her husband and her five year old daughter Stanley Ann Dunham. Ponca City was the headquarters for Continental Oil Company (Conoco) and had a huge refinery at Ponca City employing thousands. This is a photo of the Conoco Headquarters in Ponca City at the time Madelyn Dunham and her family moved to Ponca City. Photo: Unknown

War and Post-War Activities

Dan Nakaso reports in USA today that Madelyn Dunham attended college at the University of Washington before becoming an aircraft inspector for Boeing during World War II. "She was from the part of the country where a girl sets out to be a wife and a mother and ends up building airplanes for the war effort," said Alice Dewey, University of Hawai'i anthropology professor emeritus, who was Ann Dunham's graduate studies adviser and became a family friend. Bill Meyer writes that while Dunham was in the army during World War II moving from base to base, Madelyn went back home with her daughter.r. She landed a job on the night shift at the Boeing plant 15 miles down Highway 54 in Wichita, commuting each day. Madelyn was a supervisor on the B-29 bomber assembly line. She wasn't exactly "Rosie the Riveter" -- more like "Rosie the Quality-Control Inspector."r.

Dewey described Madelyn Dunham as "a bit shy, not a chatty kind of person. But she had decided opinions on whatever we were talking about, which was often political. She would get information and have an opinion and tell you why. ... She was always very affectionate with Ann and with Barry."

During World War II, while Stanley Dunham served in the Army. Madelyn worked on a Boeing B-29 assembly line in Wichita. Her brother Charlie Payne was part of the 89th Infantry Division, which liberated the Nazi concentration camp at Ohrdruf, a subcamp of Buchenwald, a fact Barack Obama has referred to in speeches.

After the war the family started out in El Dorado, Kansas, where Stanley had managed a furniture store and Madelyn worked in restaurants. Then the family moved to California where Stanley attended UC-Berkeley on the GI Bill. Madelyn also attended some classes at UC-Berkeley.

Life in Ponca City

Barack Obama's grandmother, Madelyn Dunham, was 26 years old in 1948 when she arrived in Ponca City. Ponca City was a thriving community in the late 1940's when Stanley Dunham and his family arrived in Ponca City. Ponca City was the headquarters for Continental Oil Company (Conoco) and had a huge refinery at Ponca City employing thousands. It is not yet known if Madelyn Dunham worked outside the home but it is documented that in other places she lived like Wichita, Seattle, and Honolulu, Madelyn worked outside the house so it is very possible that with her daughter Stanley Ann in school, Madelyn Dunham had a job outside the house while she was living in Ponca City.

If Madelyn Dunham did have a job while her husband worked at Jay Paris Furniture and her daughter attended elementary school, no one has yet come forward who knew her or remembered her working outside the house. Madelyn Dunham had strong administrative skills as evidenced by her work during the war when she worked as a quality control inspector for an assembly line building B-29's in Wichita.

Here is what we can conjecture about Madelyn Dunham's employment in Ponca City. Later on in her life Madelyn Dunham worked as an escrow officer at a bank and was later vice-president of a bank in Washington State, so if she worked outside the home while she was living in Ponca City, it is possible that she may have been at a bank. Banks that were open in Ponca City at that time would include the First National Bank, the First Security Bank, and Ponca City Savings and Loan, so we conjecture that with her daughter in school, Madelyn Dunham may have worked at one of these banks.

Some say it is possible that with her experience as a quality control inspector during the war, she may have found work at Continental Oil Company or Cities Service while she lived in Ponca City. Others say that as a woman without a college education in the late 1940's, many doors were closed to her that might be open today. Anyone who may have known or worked with Madelyn Dunham in the late 1940's or early 1950's at any of these locations, please contact us at 580-765-6125 so we can update this story.

Dan Moran (1888-1948, led company 1928-1947), who succeeded Marland Oil Company founder E. W. Marland as president of Marland Oil in 1928, and subsequently became the first president of the merged Conoco. Moran then ran Conoco for twenty years, seeing the company through economic hardships and challenges of the Great Depression of the 1930s, and retiring in 1947, the year before he died.[15] The company ran into early trouble when, shortly after acquisition, it was hit by the Great New York Stock Market Crash of October 1929. Conoco became a key supplier to the United States federal government and its world-wide deployment of the United States Armed Forces, along with several other Allied powers and their militaries during the Second World War (1939/1941-1945). - https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Conoco

Miscarriage in Ponca City

Some believe the said mother of Barrack Obama Jr. Stanley Anne Dunham was in fact a Rockefeller relative and her likeness was used by the CIA to create a fictional character.

David Remnick reports in his book, "The Bridge," that according to Madelyn Dunham's friend Francine Pummill, Madelyn Dunham had a miscarriage and a hysterectomy while the family was living in Ponca City and so Stanley Ann remained an only child. It is not definitely known in what hospital Madalyn Dunham received her treatment, but in 1948 before the advent of Interstate I-35 it was a long, difficult drive to the nearest large cities (Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Wichita) and so we think that Madelyn Dunham was treated at St. Joseph Regional Medical Center in Ponca City. St. Jospeh's (later renamed Via Christi Oklahoma Regional Medical Center) is a Catholic, not-for-profit, hospital that served the healthcare needs of Ponca City, north central Oklahoma and south central Kansas from 1919. In 1948 St. Jospeh's had approximately 50 beds.

Washington State and Hawaii

In 1951 the Dunham family left Ponca City. Dan Nakaso reports in USA Today that Madelyn Dunham "blazed a feminist trail in Hawaii banking circles in the late 1960s and early 1970s and rose to become one of the Bank of Hawaii's first female vice presidents." "Was she ambitious? She had to be to become a vice president," said Clifford Y.J. Kong, 82, who was a senior credit officer at the bank at the time. "She was a top-notch executive to get appointed. It was a tough world."

Dunham rose from the secretarial pool to be a Bank of Hawaii vice president. Current and former Bank of Hawaii executives remember Madelyn Dunham as a tough boss with a soft side for those willing to work hard. "The first day I met her, I was totally scared," said Dennis Ching, who was a 23-year-old management trainee under Dunham beginning in 1966. "She was the Grande Dame of escrow who started the local escrow association. I was just a trainee who didn't know anything about escrow whatsoever. But she gave me a file and said, 'You're a college grad. Here, close this.' You don't know how to swim, and she throws you in, and you either sink or swim."

Hawaii State Senator Sam Slom worked in economics and business research for Bankoh while Dunham was rising to the position of vice president, and also lived one floor beneath Dunham and Obama in the Punahou Circle Apartments. "Anybody who worked with her or for her for any period of time had to be impressed with her professionalism and dedication," says Slom.v "She was just from the old school: Work hard, give a full day's work for a full day's pay. She inculcated that with anybody that came in contact with her. She didn't share or tell jokes or light moments. Her whole life was business. Nobody doubted her integrity or her honesty. She never tried to do the right things or say the right things for personal advancement. She did them because she believed in them. She was quoted as saying Stanley wears the pants. But no one who knew her would believe that. She was clearly in charge."

"Madelyn was the salt of the earth. She was a wonderful person to have working for you because she always kept you out of trouble, made the boss look good," said Howard Stephenson, the man who hired Dunham. Dunham was considered by many as the founder of the escrow business in Hawaii. Title Guaranty President David Pietsch called her the "dean" of escrow and remembers testifying with her at the Legislature. Pietsch remembered seeing Obama as a child. "I just remember seeing this young boy walking around the bank at the end of the day waiting for his grandmother," said Pietsch.

"I shall always, always in my mind and in my heart remember Madelyn as a wonderful friend with a great sense of humor and a very caring person. I will miss you Madelyn," said Helen Osgood, Bank of Hawaii co-worker.

Hawaii's U.S. Representative Mazie Hirono credits Dunham for deeply influencing not only Obama, but also for making her what she is today. Right after she graduated from the University of Hawaii, Hirono worked at the Bank of Hawaii for Dunham as a temporary employee. "She reinforced in me this idea that you can do a lot of things as a woman if you are focused," Hirono said.

Helps Raise Barack Obama

Young Barack Obama was born on Aug. 4, 1961. When his father left Hawaii to pursue his education, Barry and his mother stayed behind. Aside from a four-year interlude during which he lived in Indonesia with his mother and stepfather, Obama spent his childhood in Honolulu -- most of it in his grandparents' two-bedroom, high-rise apartment at 1617 S. Beretania St. Obama writes fondly of looking up from the basketball court to find his grandmother, affectionately called "Toot," watching him practice from the 10th-floor window and has vivid memories of his grandmother heading to the office. "Every morning, she woke up at five a.m. and changed from the frowsy muu-muus (sic) she wore around the apartment into a tailored suit and high-heeled pumps," Obamawrites. Obama says Toot took a secretarial job at Bank of Hawaii "to help defray the costs of my unexpected birth."

After the Obama marriage fell apart, Barack Obama spent four years with his mother and her second husband in Jakarta, Indonesia but returned to the United States in 1971 at age 10 to live with his maternal grandparents in the Makiki district of Honolulu and enrolled in the fifth grade at the Punahou School. Obama's mother eventually earned a Ph.D. in anthropology and went on to be employed on development projects in Indonesia and around the world helping impoverished women obtain microfinance. She returned to Indonesia in 1977 for her Masters' fieldwork and Obama stayed in the United States with his grandparents. Obama writes in his memoir, Dreams From My Father, "I'd arrived at an unspoken pact with my grandparents: I could live with them and they'd leave me alone so long as I kept my trouble out of sight."

Madelyn Dunham took Obama on his first tour of the contiguous United States, traveling by Greyhound bus and stopping at Howard Johnson's along the way. Madelyn showed Obama the Grand Canyon, Yellowstone, Disneyland and, finally, Chicago -- the city where he would hone his skills as a community organizer, meet his future wife and launch his political career. Obama's sister, Maya Soetoro-Ng, says many of the qualities that got Obama this far came from Toot. "From our grandmother, he gets his pragmatism, his levelheadedness, his ability to stay centered in the eye of the storm," Soetoro-Ng told The Associated Press. "His sensible, no-nonsense (side) is inherited from her."

In "Dreams," Obama describes his grandparents as "vaguely liberal." He recounts an incident in which his grandmother was upbraided for addressing a black janitor, a World War II veteran, as "Mr. Reed." Despite the warning, she continued to use the honorific. "'Your grandfather and I just figured we should treat people decently, Bar,'" he remembers her telling him. "She's wise that way, my grandmother, suspicious of overwrought sentiments or overblown claims, content with common sense." But it was another incident, one to which he was a party, that had a most profound effect on the biracial teenager. Toot had asked her husband for a ride to work because a particularly aggressive panhandler had accosted her for money the day before. When Stanley refused, his grandson couldn't understand why. "She's been bothered by men before," his grandfather explained, according to the memoir. "Before you came in, she told me the fella was black. That's the real reason why she's bothered." Obama described the words as "like a fist in my stomach." It was a life-changing moment for him. Charles Payne says his sister's response to the reference was "like, 'Oh, well.'" But his reaction was that Obama shouldn't have shared that anecdote. "She was really a very liberal person; liberal in politics and, I think, liberal in thinking," says the brother, who has worked hard on his great-nephew's campaign. "Frankly ... that story, when it was in the book, I felt didn't need to be in there."

Retirement

After Madelyn Dunham retired from Bankoh in 1986, she didn't just sit back. Over the years she's worked for various charitable organizations. She did volunteer at the local library, as well as the Oahu Circuit Court, where she served as a court observer, probate aide and arbitrator for the Juvenile Monetary Restitution Program. Madelyn Dunham loved to play bridge. "When Stanley was still alive, they would go on cruises around the islands and they'd do nothing but play bridge," says brother Jack. "She and Stanley were vicious bridge players." When Stanley died in 1992, she continued to play, as many as six days a week. Until a few years ago, when failing eyesight and osteoporosis got the better of her, she would go to the brick recreation center at the Ala Wai Community Park near Waikiki to play duplicate bridge with the Honolulu Seniors.

Battle with Cancer

Obama left the campaign trail at a crucial time just two weeks before the election to spend time with his grandmother. "Her body is not in great shape she has osteoporosis which means she can't travel. She can't sit for a long periods of time on the plane so that's why it is so important for me to take these trips back to Hawaii," Obama said. "She has been frail for quite sometime now."

"She was a very determined person as you began to get to know her she knew her mind and followed her principles," said University of Hawaii professor Alice Dewey, a longtime friend of the Obamas. ""She probably stayed on his case make him tow the line and behave himself with the best of intentions and great affection for him." Obama's decision to be at her side in her time of need does not surprise those who know him. "The whole family is quite special," Dewey said.

Friends said Obama's urgency to get back to Hawaii to visit his grandmother could be fueled by one of his greatest regrets which is not being in Hawaii for the death of his mother, Ann Dunham, who died at age 52 of ovarian cancer. Obama said he did not want to make the same mistake twice. "One of the things I wanted to have a chance to sit down with her and talk to her. She's still alert and she still has all the faculties and I wanted to make sure that I don't miss that opportunity right now," Obama told ABC's "Good Morning America" before he left for the islands.

In 2008 Madelyn Dunham died at age 86 after a battle with cancer. Madelyn died on November 2, 2008, the day before Barack Obama's election as President. "She died peacefully in her sleep with my sister at her side, so there’s great joy instead of tears," said Barack Obama. "She was one of those quiet heroes that we have all across America. They’re not famous. Their names are not in the newspapers, but each and every day they work hard."

[Is Obama the secret son of Malcolm X?]

“Obama Senior was murdered in Kenya in 1982 to silence him. Interesting story re his sister Auma as well - she appears to be a full sister, not a half-sister as he is claiming, i.e. they share the same mother. She was ordered back to Kenya in 2007 to prevent DNA testing …. CIA did a DNA test on the grandparents, using saliva from glasses, which conclusively rules out any relationship between Obama and the Dunhams.”

“The source said that the Dunham family became involved because Stanley Dunham, Sr. was suspected of espionage. Boeing, he said, has “a 1944 security file on Stanley Dunham in connection with suspected sabotage of B-17G aircraft at their Wichita Kansas plant and the theft of B-29 blueprints, a full set of which were passed to the German Abwehr via Lisbon by June 1944. Ann Dunham appears to have been chosen as the surrogate mother in 1963 because of the family connection to German Intelligence. German assets in the US, including Rezko, who is connected to the Syrian Mukhabarat and the German DVD, sponsored his career.

“Effectively,” the source concludes, “Obama is a German sleeper agent.”

Madelyn Lee Payne Dunham (/ˈdʌnəm/ DUN-əm; October 26, 1922[1] - November 2, 2008) was the American maternal grandmother of Barack Obama, the 44th President of the United States. She and her husband Stanley Armour Dunham raised Obama from age ten in their Honolulu, Hawaii, apartment, where on November 2, 2008, she died two days before her grandson was elected President.

The Story of Obama: All in The Company (Part I)

by Wayne Madsen

In 1967, Obama and his mother joined her husband in Jakarta. In 1965, Lolo Soetoro had been called back from Hawaii by General Suharto to serve as an officer in the Indonesian military to help launch a bloody CIA-backed genocide of Indonesian Communists and Indonesian Chinese throughout the expansive country. Suharto consolidated his power in 1966, the same year that Barack Obama, Sr.’s friend, Mboya, had helped to rally pro-U.S. pan-African support for the CIA’s overthrow of Nkrumah in Ghana in 1966.

President Obama’s own work in 1983 for Business International Corporation, a CIA front that conducted seminars with the world’s most powerful leaders and used journalists as agents abroad, dovetails with CIA espionage activities conducted by his mother, Stanley

Ann Dunham in 1960s post-coup Indonesia on behalf of a number of CIA front operations, including the East-West Center at the University of Hawaii, the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID), and the Ford Foundation. Dunham met and married Lolo Soetoro, Obama's stepfather, at the East-West Center in 1965. Soetoro was recalled to Indonesia in 1965 to serve as a senior army officer and assist General Suharto and the CIA in the bloody overthrow of President Sukarno.

Barack Obama, Sr., who met Dunham in 1959 in a Russian language class at the University of Hawaii, had been part of what was described as an airlift of 280 East African students to the United States to attend various colleges - merely "aided" by a grant from the Joseph P. Kennedy Foundation, according to a September 12, 1960, Reuters report from London. The airlift was a CIA operation to train and indoctrinate future agents of influence in Africa, which was becoming a battleground between the United States and the Soviet Union and China for influence among newly-independent and soon-to-be independent countries on the continent.

The airlift was condemned by the deputy leader of the opposition Kenyan African Democratic Union (KADU) as favoring certain tribes - the majority Kikuyus and minority Luos - over other tribes to favor the Kenyan African National Union (KANU), whose leader was Tom Mboya, the Kenyan nationalist and labor leader who selected Obama, Sr. for a scholarship at the University of Hawaii. Obama, Sr., who was already married with an infant son and pregnant wife in Kenya, married Dunham on Maui on February 2, 1961 and was also the university's first African student. Dunham was three month's pregnant with Barack Obama, Jr. at the time of her marriage to Obama, Sr.

KADU deputy leader Masinda Muliro, according to Reuters, said KADU would send a delegation to the United States to investigate Kenyan students who received "gifts" from the Americans and "ensure that further gifts to Kenyan students are administered by people genuinely interested in Kenya's development.'"

The CIA allegedly recruited Tom M'Boya in a heavily funded "selective liberation" programme to isolate Kenya's founding President Jomo Kenyatta, whom the American spy agency labelled as "unsafe." Mboya received a $100,000 grant for the airlift from the Kennedy Foundation after he turned down the same offer from the U.S. State Department, obviously concerned that direct U.S. assistance would look suspicious to pro-Communist Kenyan politicians who suspected Mboya of having CIA ties. The Airlift Africa project was underwritten by the Kennedy Foundation and the African-American Students Foundation. Obama, Sr. was not on the first airlift but a subsequent one. The airlift, organized by Mboya in 1959, included students from Kenya, Uganda, Tanganyika, Zanzibar, Northern Rhodesia, Southern Rhodesia, and Nyasaland.

Reuters also reported that Muliro charged that Africans were "disturbed and embittered" by the airlift of the selected students. Muliro "stated that "preferences were shown to two major tribes [Kikuyu and Luo] and many U.S.-bound students had failed preliminary and common entrance examinations, while some of those left behind held first-class certificates."

CIA-airlifted to Hawaii, Barack Obama Sr., with leis, stands with Stanley Dunham, President Obama's grandfather, on his right. Obama, Sr. was a friend of Mboya and a fellow Luo. After Mboya was assassinated in 1969, Obama, Sr. testified at the trial of his alleged assassin. Obama, Sr. claimed he was the target of a hit-and-run assassination attempt after his testimony.

Obama, Sr., who left Hawaii for Harvard in 1962, divorced Dunham in 1964. Obama, Sr. married a fellow Harvard student, Ruth Niedesand, a Jewish-American woman, who moved with him to Kenya and had two sons. They were later divorced. Obama, Sr. worked for the Kenyan Finance and Transport ministries as well as an oil firm. Obama, Sr. died in a 1982 car crash and his funeral was attended by leading Kenyan politicians, including future Foreign Minister Robert Ouko, who was murdered in 1990.

CIA files indicate that Mboya was an important agent-of-influence for the CIA, not only in Kenya but in all of Africa. A formerly Secret CIA Current Intelligence Weekly Summary, dated November 19, 1959, states that Mboya served as a check on extremists at the second All-African People's Conference (AAPC) in Tunis. The report states that "serious friction developed between Ghana's Prime Minister Kwame Nkrumah and Kenyan nationalist Tom Mboya who cooperated effectively last December to check extremists at the AAPC's first meeting in Accra." The term "cooperated effectively" appears to indicate that Mboya was cooperating with the CIA, which filed the report from field operatives in Accra and Tunis. While "cooperating" with the CIA in Accra and Tunis, Mboya selected the father of the president of the United States to receive a scholarship and be airlifted to the University of Hawaii where he met and married President Obama's mother.

An earlier CIA Current Intelligence Weekly Summary, secret, and dated April 3, 1958, states that Mboya "still appears to be the most promising of the African leaders." Another CIA weekly summary, secret and dated December 18, 1958, calls Mboya the Kenyan nationalist an “able and dynamic young chairman” of the People’s Convention party who was viewed as an opponent of “extremists” like Nkrumah, supported by “Sino-Soviet representatives.”

In a formerly Secret CIA report on the All-Africa Peoples Conference in 1961, dated November 1, 1961, Mboya’s conservatism, along with that of Taleb Slim of Tunisia, are contrasted to the leftist policies of Nkrumah and others. Pro-communists who were elected to the AAPC’s steering committee at the March 1961 Cairo conference, attended by Mboya, are identified in the report as Abdoulaye Diallo, AAPC Secretary General, of Senegal; Ahmed Bourmendjel of Algeria; Mario de Andrade of Angola; Ntau Mokhele of Basutoland; Kingue Abel of Cameroun; Antoine Kiwewa of Congo (Leopoldville); Kojo Botsio of Ghana; Ismail Toure of Guinea; T. O. Dosomu Johnson of Liberia; Modibo Diallo of Mali; Mahjoub Ben Seddik of Morocco; Djibo Bakari of Niger; Tunji Otegbeya of Nigeria; Kanyama Chiume of Nyasaland; Ali Abdullahi of Somalia; Tennyson Makiwane of South Africa, and Mohamed Fouad Galal of the United Arab Republic.

“There are said to be photos of Ann Dunham on Waikiki Beach taken in or about July 1961, when she is supposed to have been in her third trimester, in a bikini, taken by a fellow female student. AD is clearly not pregnant. Media have not yet talked to fellow students, but it can’t be long. There are bound to be other photos of AD in existence taken during the alleged 2nd and 3rd trimesters. Obama campaign are terrified some one will press for her medical records, which have been accessed by CIA.”

“Moving to Indonesia the Obama campaign are also suppressing the Indonesian immigration and passport records, which I believe show him as a Kenyan citizen, and the naturalisation records. They have not denied Internet claims he was naturalised in Indonesia. If he was a US citizen there should be a visa record to back that up.”

Well, this is a lot to take in, and on first reading it struck me that the source had been reading too many Le Carre novels or Bond movies. I mean, really: "The Manchurian Candidate" meets "The Boy from Mombassa Kenya"?

It seemed completely preposterous, and indeed I initially dismissed it as preposterous. Obama a "German sleeper agent"? Of course, in those days the East Germans were a Soviet satellite, and the DDR was perhaps the most feared and ideological of the communist states, with more than a sprinkling of rehabilitated Nazis uncured of their genetic fantasies andexperiments. 1961-1963 were the peak years of the Cold War, with Berlin playing a central role in East-West hostilities.

Isreali Inteligence Agency Officials find it hard to believe November 1960 conception (Feb 2, 1961 Marriage) and August 4 birth Madely Paine CIA Honolulu by Reuven Koret, Israel Insider Publisher If Barack Hussein Obama II is Malcolm X's biological son, it would explain the mystery of why he was so generously helped by so many Arab and communist "friends in high places" long before he was a "somebody." Just as Malcolm X adopted Islam, his secret son would also need to learn its ways, and learn the ways of revolution, not just assume an Islamic name. He would need to be groomed and educated to organize the community called the United States of America. by Reuven Koret, Israel Insider Publisher

In August I received a curious email. As a magazine that covers international politics, with a focus on Mideast affairs, Israel Insider gets more from its fair share of baseless tips and phony rumors. I ignore most and delete them unread. This one was a bit different. It came from a national security lawyer with extensive credentials and intelligence connections that checked out, and a phone number.

Israel Insider had been running a series of articles exploring the vagaries of Barack Obama's birth, and his concealed documentation, and this was the jumping off point of the email, which confirmed the claim that Obama was not born in Hawaii, that "Mossad are going with Mombasa" but "Proving Mombasa is not so easy, as NSIS in Nairobi are clamming up tight, as are MI6 in London, who have the original Mombasa file and full details of the birth."

He said that "Disproving Honolulu is child's play. You've already shown that the birth certificate put forward by Obama (whose people privately are not denying Mombasa, by the way) is a fake. Why fake it? If he was born in Honolulu he could obtain a genuine one. Hawaii Dept of Health would hardly denounce a potential presidential candidate's birth certificate as fraudulent without cross-checking birth records for August 1961. No birth was registered in the name of Obama in Honolulu in August 1961." (This last detail may explain why Hawaiian officials last Friday confirmed that a birth certificate does indeed exist but conspicuously refused to release any details or even confirm that the details conform to those on the computer-generated Certification of Live Birth.

The name on the "original" certificate may in fact not be Obama nor the birthplace Honolulu. But Obama's recent visit "to his grandmother" may well have had less to do with her health than eliciting this vague and inconclusive statement from the Hawaiian Health Department.) The source continues: "There is no evidence Ann Dunham had even met Obama Senior in or around November 1960, the alleged time of conception, indeed it is not even clear Obama was in Honolulu at that time, although he may have been. Ann Dunham was only 17 and although she might have been in Honolulu the timing is tight."

"More to the point, she was in neither of the medical centers put forward by the Obama campaign (question: why do they not know in which hospital he was born?) on August 4th, nor are there medical records to back up the claimed birth, nor has an attending physician been named. I've heard of births with the father absent, births with the mother absent a bit trickier."
